Phyllis Pezenik
DJK Residential

Phyllis Pezenik currently functions as the Vice President of Brokerage Services and leader of DJK Residential, a leading real estate and relocation firm committed to service excellence, unyielding integrity, and delivering results through hard work and innovation. In 2011, Phyllis proudly led the Manhattan Association of REALTORS® (MANAR) as its President. She formerly served on the board of MANAR, now known as Hudson Gateway Association of Realtors (HGAR), and was recognized as MANAR's "Realtor of the Year" in 2011.

Phyllis' accomplishments include: developing and growing a highly successful architectural design firm; serving as the chairman of the Old Westbury Board of Appeals; and rising to the top of her profession as a multi-million dollar producing sales agent at a top Manhattan brokerage firm. She tirelessly continues to build her portfolio of real estate skills and certifications as a member of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY); the New York State Association of Realtors, and the National Association of Realtors. Her expertise has been showcased in The New York Times, the Wall Street Journal, industry periodicals and international business journals. She has also been asked to offer her expert industry insight on NY1, Fox5NY, and HGTV.
